ME. BRISTOW! ATTENTION!

Mr. Richard Smith in the course of his remarks made this some what supprising statement:

I had a conver-sation in few days ago with the ex-secretary of the treasury. Mr. Bristow, and he informed me that when the bill providing for the resumption of specie payments on January 1, 1879, was introduced, he pronounced it impracticable, and he says it is impracticable now.

Here is a good opportunity for Mr. Bristow to take the

Here is a good opportunity for Mr. Bristow to take the floor in explanation. There is plenty of testimony extant to show that when he had hopes of being nominated for President he professed to be strongly in favor of resumption at the earliest passible period. When he was Secretary of the Treasury he was very emphatic and urgent in calling upon Congress to make provision for retiring the legal tender circulating notes. As late as August he made a speech at Burlington, Vt., in which he defended the Resumption Act listelf, as follows:

The repeal of the date clause would have carried with it, by necessary implication, the repeal of all authority to prepare for the redemption of the legal tenders.

The act of 1875 is a solemn pledge of the faith of the Government to redeem the legal tender notes on and after January 1, 1879, and implies an obligation to adopt the execution of the promise.

Let us hear from Mr. Bristow again, by all means.

COMPLAINTS OF THE FISHERMEN-COTTAGERS PRO-

TECTING THEMSELVES AGAINST THE OCEAN.

Long Branch, July 10 .- The fishermen at this place are complaining of hard times in the matter of fish. For the past six years, for some mysterious reason, the supply of blackfish, bluefish, etc., which was once plentiful, has been gradually decreasing. The demand for fish by the hotel-keepers and the cottagers has been larger each year. This year the fish are scarcer than ever before, and the dealers cannot possibly fill the orders which come to them.

While talking to-day a number of fishermen as cribed the cause of this meiancholy state of affairs, not to the fact that the waters of the Branch have been fished out, but to the more probable fact that small fry, esteemed as delicacies by the big fish, have

SARATOGA SPRINGS, July 11 .- The sensation of the evening is the published state nent that the Grand Union had solicited the presence of Mr. Gabriel Netter of New-against the unwelcome Rebrew. It appears that Mr

Neiter is an old acquaintance of Mr. Wilkinson, and wrote to him several times for rooms at the Grand Union, and had upbraided him for his course in the Hebrew controversy. Finally, Mr. Wilkinson wrote to Mr. Netter, telling him that he would be glad to see him at the Grand Union, strict policy adopted in this regard by the hotel manage

A small stream of smoke pouring from a little stovepipe in the forward portion of the wreck, betokens that some one is living there, but whether fisherman, wrecker, or gy psy is a question. It is probably a sign of occupation by the wreckers who are engaged in dismantling the steamer.

The cottagers in the vicinity of the Rusland are having a hand-to-hand tussle with the occan. Last Winter the latter, after its usual fashion, stole a lot of the land.
